

Above—A skyline picture of the start of a sweepstakes at the Goodwood races in England.
New York Herald Foreign Photo.

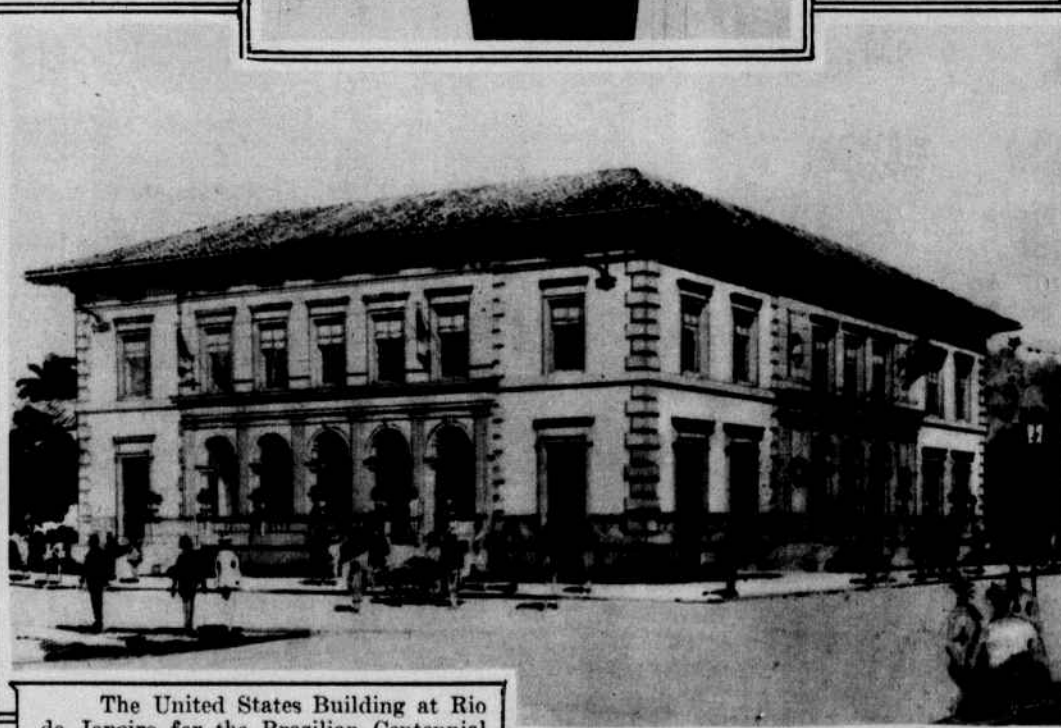

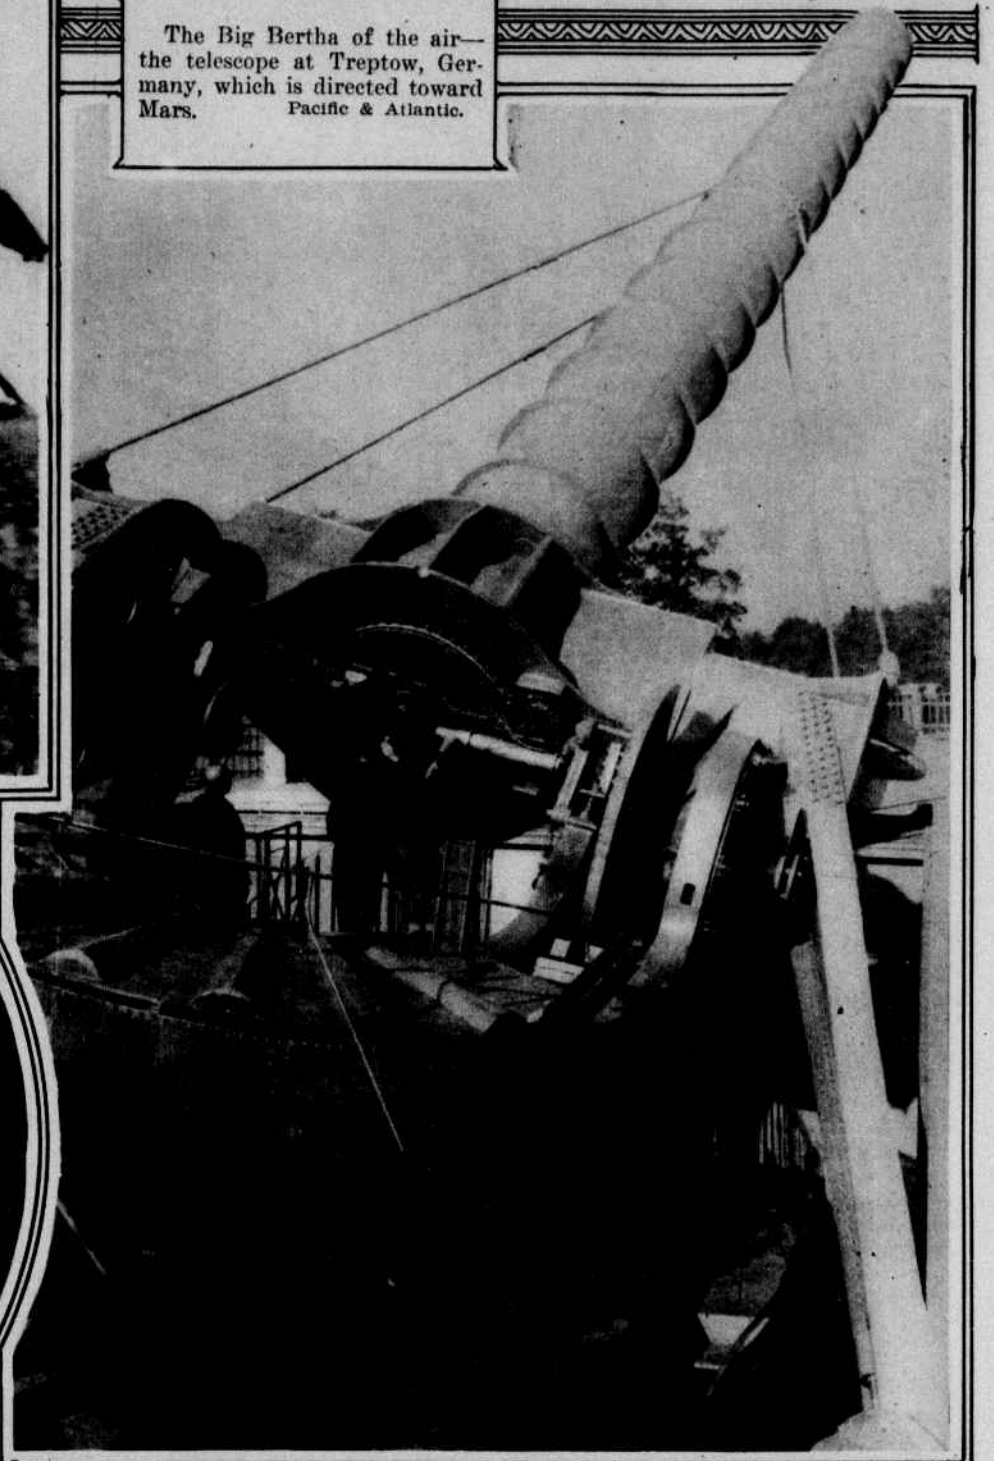

At Right—Dr. J. S. Plaskett at Victoria, B. C., where he measured the twin suns which now bear his name.
Underwood & Underwood.

Miss Edith M. Freeman of East Orange, N. J., who has been chosen as Queen Titania for the annual fete at Asbury Park.
Underwood & Underwood.

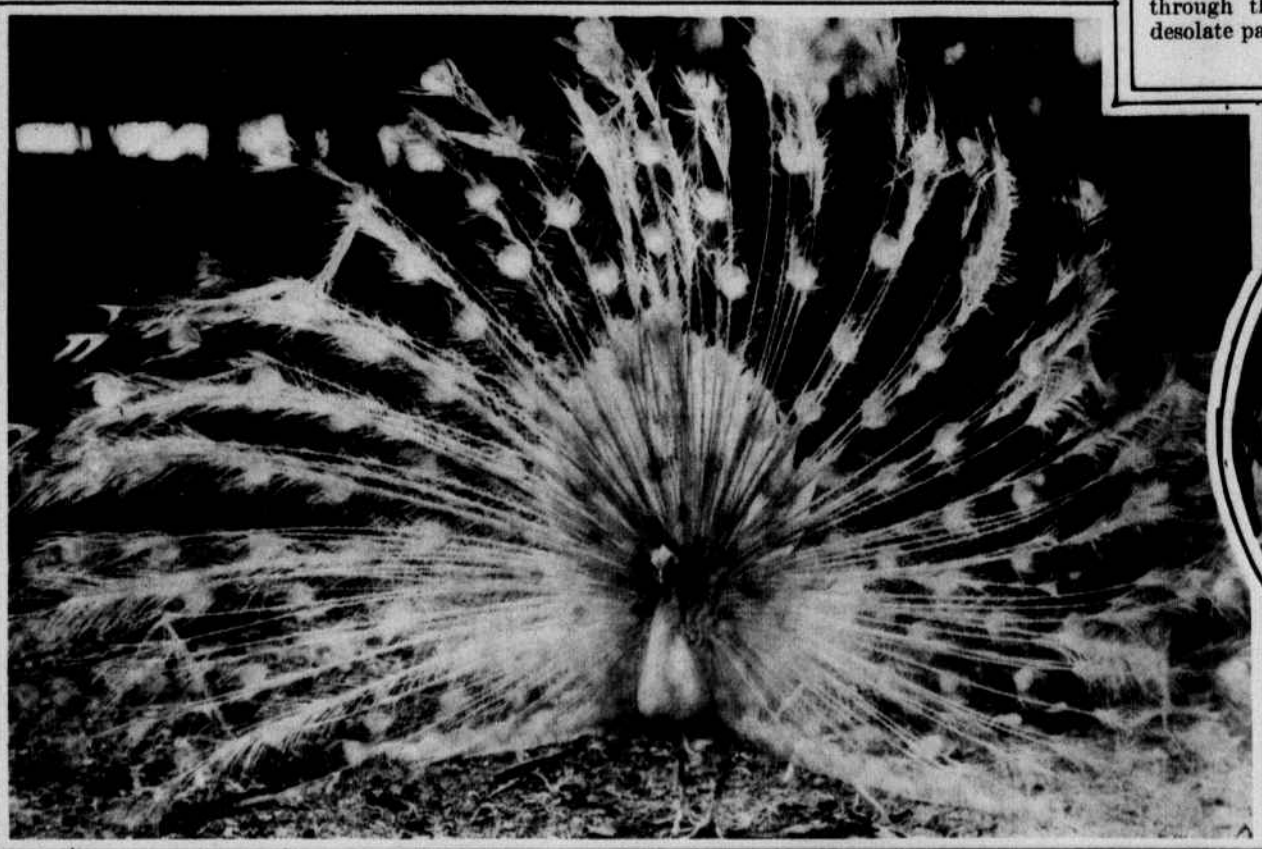

The Big Bertha of the air—the telescope at Treptow, Germany, which is directed toward Mars.
Pacific & Atlantic.

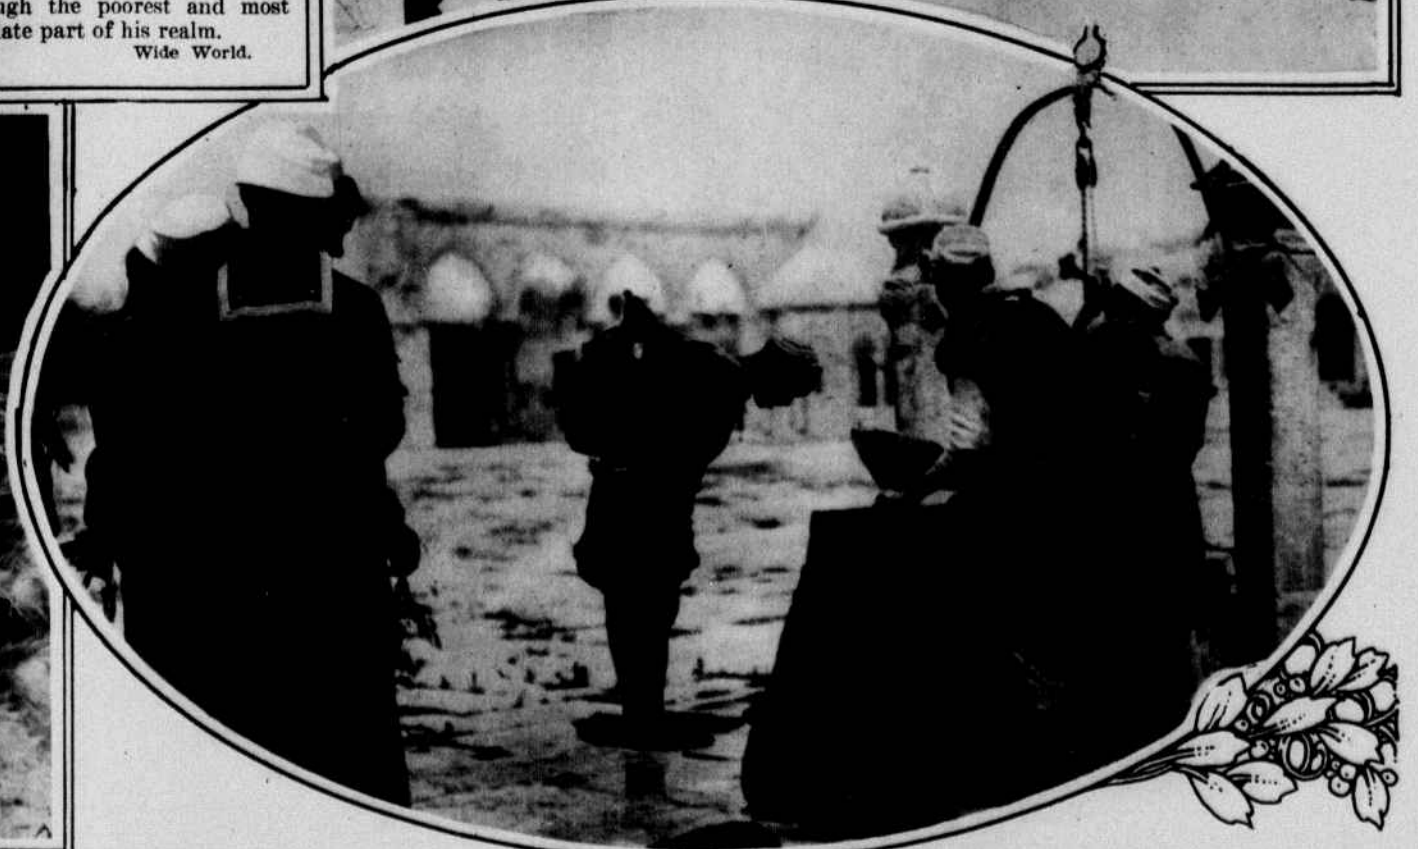

The United States Building at Rio de Janeiro for the Brazilian Centennial Exposition. It will be used after as the American Embassy.

King Alfonso of Spain (at the extreme left) leaving the church of La Alberca on his recent visit through the poorest and most desolate part of his realm.
Wide World.

The rare white peacock, one of the most beautiful in the country, posing for the camera man in the Glendale Zoo, Nashville, Tenn.
Keystone.

A group of American bluejackets on the site of Solomon's Temple, Jerusalem, watching some of the natives filling their goatskin water bags.
Navy Official.